OVERVIEW

PROBLEM

In today's world, we are overwhelmed by information. Professionals now have to search amongst vast amounts of data just to conduct day to day activities. Time is wasted, money is lost, and operations are inefficient due to people being bombarded with unnecessary information.

SOLUTION

MaxSearch is the world leading application to find, index, and analyze mass amounts of metadata. By utilizing MaxSearch, professionals can easily find essential information in a timely manner. This leads to faster solutions to problems that organizations face every day.

ENTERPRISES

FROM STARTUPS TO LARGE ORGANIZATIONS

WE PROVIDE SOLUTIONS TO ALL BUSINESSES REGARDLESS OF SIZE, INDUSTRY, OR STRUCTURE

There has been an increase in the rate that employees burnout due to the increasing amount of data they have to sift through to accomplish an everyday task. We have access to more information today than ever before. This has been a blessing and a curse for some professionals. They have the answer to any and every problem. However, finding that solution through all of the noise turns into a daunting task.

For Example, people involved in a simple logistics operation 20 years ago would access critical information regarding transportation regulations within a physical document. With all documents now being digital and with the increased amount of regulation, transportation professionals now spend countless hours ensuring they comply with local, state, and federal regulations. There are mass amounts of information that can be indexed through MaxSearch to provide essential knowledge in a timely manner.

MILITARY

MILITARY LEADERS WITHIN ALL BRANCHES OF SERVICE

MILITARY OPERATIONS ARE COMPLEX AND INVOLVE A LOT OF MOVING PIECES. ENSURE WE REMAIN READY AND EFFICIENT WITH MAXSEARCH

National security is a major concern for the government, businesses, and the average American citizen. Military operations have become more complex due to the way the battlefield has changed in the age of terrorism. Military leaders responsible for national security have to find solutions within the complexity of our global presence.

The amount of information our leaders have to index to ensure success is quite alarming. With large units needing to respond to quickly, our leaders need a solution to quickly access critical information.

MaxSearch would allow military leaders to become more efficient and agile. This would increase our response rate, positively impact mission success, and ultimately save lives.

LAW FIRMS

FOR LAWYERS, PARALEGALS, AND POLICY MAKERS

REMAIN EFFICIENT BY UTILIZING MAXSEARCH TO SIFT THROUGH POLICIES, REGULATIONS, AND LAW.

The legal world is changing faster than ever. Legal professionals are tasked with keeping up to date with complex laws that change frequently. Paralegals experience burnout more often than any other profession due to the amount of information they have to sift through daily.

The complex algorithms and science behind MaxSearch can index a large legal library within minutes. This allows law professionals to easily access the exact information they need to find in record-breaking time.

Lawyers can now run a more efficient and agile law firm. This leads to winning more cases, assisting more clients, and ultimately making a difference in society.
